INTRODUCTION

Remember the sabbath day. Call the sabbath a delight. This is the Lord's day, and the Lord will do for us what the Lord does: feed us, forgive us, help and heal us. Rejoice at all the wonderful things God is doing.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

SIGNING OF ATTENDANCE PADS

(Ushers will be handing out Attendance Pads during the announcements. Please be sure to sign your name and contact information.)

BACK TO SCHOOL BLESSING

* CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P We take this time at the beginning of the service to recognize our need for God's help. We are not perfect, and there are places in our spiritual life that God wants to heal. We open our hearts and minds and privately talk to God of those things we need help with, where we have done or said things that are not pleasing to him or others. We ask forgiveness for these things and the opportunities we have missed to help others and heal the world.

(Brief silence for private confession.)

P If you are truly sorry and asking God for help, here is the promise he commanded the leaders in his church to proclaim, "You are forgiven." May this forgiveness free you and help you to live; to live in Jesus' name.

C Amen.

GOSPEL SONG: COME TO US

Scattered and broken, bent in our way,
We are Your people, gathered to praise You.
A vineyard up-rooted, narrow in sight,
Come, Lord of Glory! Come, Lord of Light!

CHORUS:

Come to us, oh Lord of Glory and shine in our hearts.
Come to us, oh Lord of Glory and make us anew.
We adore You! We adore You!
We adore You, sweet Lord of Glory!

GOSPEL: Luke 13:10-17

Jesus heals a woman on the sabbath, offering her a new beginning for her life. When challenged by a narrow reading of the sabbath command, Jesus responds by expanding "sabbath work" to include setting people free from bondage.

A The holy gospel according to St. Luke, chapter 13, verses 10-17.

¹⁰Now [Jesus] was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. ¹¹And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. ¹²When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment." ¹³When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. ¹⁴But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day."¹⁵But the Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water?"¹⁶And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?"¹⁷When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

GOSPEL SONG: COME TO US
Come, Lord, our Dayspring, come from on high.
As we Your people, gather to praise You.
Unworthy to taste from Your heavenly vine,
But Your word will heal us. Come, light divine!

CHORUS:
Come to us, oh Lord of Glory and shine in our hearts.
Come to us, oh Lord of Glory and make us anew.
We adore You! We adore You!
We adore You, sweet Lord of Glory!

Come Root of Jesse, come David's Son,
Come, Star of Morning. We come to praise You!
Hope of Creation, of all humankind.
Reign over body, spirit, and mind! CHORUS TWICE

CHILDREN'S SERMON

SERMON

* SERMON SONG: 10,000 REASONS (BLESS THE LORD)

CHORUS:
Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul, worship Your holy name.
Sing like never before, O my soul, I worship Your holy name.

The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning. It's time to sing
Your song again! Whatever may pass, and whatever lies before me,
Let me be singing when the evening come. CHORUS

You're rich in love and You're slow to anger. Your name is great,
And Your heart is kind. For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing.
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find. CHORUS

And on that day when my strength is failing, the end draws near and
My time has come; Still my soul sings Your praise unending,
Ten thousand years and then forevermore.

CHORUS TWICE:
Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul, worship Your holy name.
Sing like never before, O my soul, I worship Your holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O my soul, worship Your holy name.
Sing like never before, O my soul, I worship Your holy name.

* APOSTLES' CREED

- A With the whole church, let us confess our faith.
- C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

(The congregation may be seated during the prayers.)

(We will be collecting offerings before and after worship each week. This includes Power of One dollars.)

OFFERING and POWER OF ONE

"Power of One" is a ministry sponsored by your Stewardship Team. We are asking each and every one of our members to give $1.00 above what your normal giving would be. We are asking each member to place this $1.00 bill or change in the offering plate each week. The team is also inviting all children to participate to develop the habit of giving as part of their worship experience. Parents, a penny, nickel, dime, quarter, or dollar bill, any of these will do to help your children develop a habit of giving. These "Power of One" dollars will be used to support local ministries and ministries abroad. The purpose of this ministry is to demonstrate that something as small as one dollar can be used to make a difference in the lives of others.

* OFFERING PRAYER

P God of abundance: you have set before us a plentiful harvest. As we feast on your goodness, strengthen us to labor in your field, and equip us to bear fruit for the good of all. Bless our offerings to continue your work in this world, in the name of Jesus.

C Amen.

* REMEMBERING JESUS' WORDS, PROMISES, AND COMMANDS

* LORD'S PRAYER

P Lord remember us in your kingdom and teach us to sing.

C Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

* INVITATION TO COMMUNION

P Come and receive God's love and freedom.

C Amen

DISTRIBUTION OF COMMUNION (Continuous with Individual Cups)

{Distribution will be continuous. All are welcome for communion. Please come down the center aisle starting from the front. Follow directions of the ushers, coming up one side at a time. Please keep 6 feet between those who are not your family members. Pastor will hand you the bread. If you wish to have a gluten-free wafer, please tell Pastor "Gluten-free, please." Afterward, you will choose either wine or white grape juice from the individual cups in the tray – white grape juice in the center with wine surrounding. Place the empty cups in the baskets located off to the side. Although communion is continuous, you are welcome to kneel at the rail in prayer after receiving communion. Please return to your seat by the side aisles.}

* PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

P Life-giving God, through this meal you have bandaged our wounds and fed us with your mercy. Now send us forth to live for others, both friend and stranger, that all may come to know your love. This we pray in the name of Jesus.

C Amen.

* BLESSING

P The God of peace, Father, ☩ Son, and Holy Spirit, bless you, comfort you, and show you the path of life this day and always.

C Amen.

* CLOSING SONG: LESS LIKE ME

Oh, I have days I lose the fight; Try my best but just don't get it right.
Where I talk a talk that I don't walk, and miss the moments right before my eyes.

PRE-CHORUS:

Somebody with a hurt that I could have helped,
Somebody with a hand that I could have held.
When I just can't see past myself, Lord, help me be. . .

CHORUS:

A little more like mercy, a little more like grace.
A little more like kindness, goodness, love and faith.
A little more like patience, a little more like peace.
A little more like Jesus, a little less like me. (2nd TIME TO BRIDGE)

Yeah, there's no denying I have changed. I've been saved from who I used to be.
But even at my best, I must confess, I still need help to see the way You see.

REPEAT PRE-CHORUS and CHORUS

BRIDGE:

Oh, to feed the beggar on the street, love to be Your hands and feet;
Freely give what I receive, Lord, help me be!
I want to put You first above all else. Love my neighbor as myself;
In the moments no one sees, Lord, help me be. . . One, two, three!

LAST CHORUS:

A little more like mercy, a little more like grace.
A little more like kindness, goodness, love and faith.
A little more like patience, a little more like peace.
A little more like Jesus, Oh, a little less like me.
A little more I'm living everything I preach.
A little more like Jesus, a little less like me.
Oh, a little less like me.

UPCOMING COMMEMORATIONS

Wednesday, August 24, 2022 Bartholomew, Apostle

Mentioned as one of Jesus' disciples in Matthew, Mark, and Luke, Bartholomew's name is replaced in John's gospel by Nathanael, leading many to believe that the two are different names for the same person. Little is known about his work, though some traditions place him later in India or Armenia.

OTHER READINGS: Isaiah 58:9b-14

God promises those who have returned from exile that where justice and mercy prevail, the ruins will be rebuilt and light will rise in the darkness. It is a day for new beginnings.

The reading begins:

^{9b}If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, ¹⁰if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. ¹¹The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. ¹²Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in. ¹³If you refrain from trampling the sabbath, from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs; ¹⁴then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

PSALM: Psalm 103:1-8

¹Bless the LORD, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless God's holy name. ²Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all God's benefits — ³who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases; ⁴who redeems your life from the grave and crowns you with steadfast love and mercy; ⁵who satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like an eagle's. ⁶O LORD, you provide vindication and justice for all who are oppressed. ⁷You made known your ways to Moses and your works to the children of Israel. ⁸LORD, you are full of compassion and mercy, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

OTHER READINGS: Hebrews 12:18-29

Using images of Moses, the writer presents a striking vision of the new covenant of God made possible in Christ. There is no longer fear; only awe in the new promise in Christ into which we are invited.

The reading begins:

¹⁸You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, ¹⁹and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. ²⁰(For they could not endure the order that was given, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.") ²¹Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, "I tremble with fear.") ²²But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, ²³and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, ²⁴and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. ²⁵See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! ²⁶At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven." ²⁷This phrase, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of what is shaken — that is, created things — so that what cannot be shaken may remain. ²⁸Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; ²⁹for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

SERVICE OVERVIEW: GOD'S VERBS

Through the lens of the gospel, today's texts offer a clear identification of God's work. What is God doing? God is reaching out to the bound-up to proclaim release from captivity. God is lifting up the oppressed. God is satisfying the needs of the afflicted. God raises up foundations. God restores and rebuilds, reconciles and sets free. God, whose word can shake the very foundations of the earth, speaks a better word than we've ever heard, or that we could ever speak. Like yeast that's included in bread dough or the seed of a particularly stubborn weed sown in the garden, when God speaks, there's no going back. The bread will be leavened; the garden will have a mustard bush; and precious daughters and sons of Abraham will be set free. It is God's work and God's activity that Isaiah calls us to be about. Why is the prophet so confident that light will conquer darkness and needs will be satisfied? Because this is already God's work, or as the prophet says, because "the mouth of the Lord has spoken." These texts focus us on the verbs, the actions, of God. When we're attuned to the verbs of God within passages like these, it might make it easier to see and give witness to God's work and the verbs around us right now.

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION:

Regardless of what day of the week we gather, we meet around the risen Christ. Jesus reminds us today that worship is not the only sabbath - Christ is our sabbath! Like the crippled woman in today's story, most humans are bent over with something, if not now then sometime in the future. Welcome to worship! Receive Christ, who straightened up the bent woman.

Jesus admonishes the religious leaders for making the rules more important than life-giving wholeness. When do rules prevent hope, health, and healing from occurring? When does a dress code exclude people? When do rules of decorum keep people from participating in community? Where are spoken or unspoken rules within our assembly, our community, and our society preventing service of neighbor?

Do you consider the sabbath a requirement or an opportunity?

Jesus encounters a woman who has a "spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years." Many of us are also walking around with spirits that are bent out of shape. What in your world wounds or crushes your spirit? How does God in Christ mend our twisted spirits into a shape that allows relief? Freedom? Gratitude? What is truly "bent" in today's gospel - the woman's back or the opinions of the religious elites? God's subversive work realized in Jesus once again sheds light on what is truly out of shape.

Perhaps, like countless old women throughout time, this woman had osteoporosis. But we all know about the condition of being bowed down by age, infirmity, or distress. In Christ we can stand upright. The sabbath controversy presents us with not only the question of how is God truly honored, but also the picture of Christ who replaces the sabbath, the one who sets us free.

KID STUDY:

There is an official day of rest and worship called the sabbath. Society’s rules in biblical times did not allow any work to be done on the sabbath day. If you did any work on that day, you did not “keep sabbath,” and Jesus got into trouble for healing a woman on that day. But once again, Jesus turns the rules upside down! Helping other people, no matter what day it is, is a great way to “keep sabbath.” Jesus himself IS our sabbath! The things we are taught when we go to church or BLAST should be in our hearts every day - even when we are not at church. Jesus always teaches us about our responsibility to love and take care of people. We are worshiping (creating a holy space where we can connect with God) when we serve our neighbors.

INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION:

Her collapsed posture is the physical representation of being “se incurvatus en se,” or, the self curved in on the self - which incidentally, is Luther’s definition of sin - myopically unconcerned for anything but the self and having no thought for God or the neighbor. In other words, bent in a manner in which we see nothing but our own feet... But see, Jesus does not violate the sabbath by healing her. He fulfills it. By healing her he actually does sabbath to her. He physically embodies in her what sabbath is - namely, a time for putting aside our handiwork so that we might witness the handiwork of God. She is passive in the midst of the faithful where she is restored to an upright position, no longer turned in on herself, and is named as a child of God's promises. That sounds pretty "sabbathy" to me. - Pastor Nadia Bolz-Weber
