MISSION STATEMENT: Love God, Love Neighbor (Luke 10:27)

VISION STATEMENT: We will work to strengthen and grow closer in relationship to God and to one another.

- As we enter into a sacred time and space, a friendly reminder to please set your cell phone to vibrate.
- We want to welcome all of our guests today and thank you for worshiping with us. If you have any questions or would like more information regarding our services, programs, day care, or preschool programs at St. Paul, please visit our Welcome Center in the narthex immediately following our service, and an attendant will be more than happy to assist you. If this is your first time at St. Paul, we hope you will take a gift along with you. We also have a gift bag for children.

* This symbol indicates that the congregation is invited to stand physically or in spirit.

INTRODUCTION

Jesus says, "It is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." It is God's promise from the beginning — to Abraham, to the early church, and to the "little flock" of which we are a part in today's assembly. Faith, God's baptismal gift, trusts the promises of God. Have no fear.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

SIGNING OF ATTENDANCE PADS

(Ushers will be handing out Attendance Pads during the announcements. Please be sure to sign your name and contact information.)

* CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P As followers of Jesus Christ, we begin our worship of God by first opening our hearts in private confession. Today's theme is about dealing with our fear in the midst of waiting for what is to come. Let us take a few brief moments of private self-examination of where our hearts and treasures are in our discipleship of Jesus Christ.

(Brief silence for private confession.)

P If you are truly sorry and asking God for help, here is the promise he commanded the leaders in his church to proclaim, "You are forgiven." May this forgiveness free you and help you to live; to live in Jesus' name.

C Amen.

GOSPEL SONG: DEVOTION

You are boundless mercy, You are endless grace.

You are sweet forgiveness, ceaseless faithfulness; washing over me...

You are sov'riegn Father, You are healing King.

You are tender Savior, righteous offering; Poured out for me...

CHORUS:

And I surrender to You. Lord, I'm yielding all I am to You.

You have captivated me. And I come to give my devotion.

GOSPEL: Luke 12:32-40

Jesus encourages disciples to invest their hearts and live fully into God's reign. Instead of facing life with fear, those who know God's generosity are always ready to receive from God and to give to others.

A The holy gospel according to St. Luke, chapter 12, verses 32-40.

[Jesus said:] <sup>32</sup>"Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. <sup>33</sup>Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. <sup>34</sup>For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. <sup>35</sup>"Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; <sup>36</sup>be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. <sup>37</sup>Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. <sup>38</sup>If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves. <sup>39</sup>"But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. <sup>40</sup>You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.”

GOSPEL SONG: DEVOTION

You are boundless mercy, You are endless grace.
You are sweet forgiveness, ceaseless faithfulness; washing over me...

You are sov'riegn Father, You are healing King.
You are tender Savior, righteous offering; Poured out for me...

CHORUS:

*And I surrender to You. Lord, I'm yielding all I am to You.
You have captivated me. And I come to give my devotion.*

END:

Yes, I come to give my devotion.
O Lord, I come to give my devotion.

CHILDREN'S SERMON

SERMON

* SERMON SONG: YOU ARE MY TREASURE

Faithful Lord, fill my cup with Your grace and love,
Your grace and love. The pleasures that this world's sure of,
They will never be enough can never be enough. (CHORUS 2 2nd time)

CHORUS 1:

*'Cause I'm created for You alone. Bought with a price, I'm not my own.
Seated in the heavenlies, there's no place I'd rather be
Than with You – forever, Lord. You are my treasure!*

REPEAT FROM BEGINNING

CHORUS 2:

*'Cause I'm created for You alone. Bought with a price, I'm not my own.
Seated in the heavenlies, there's no place I'd rather be

* APOSTLES' CREED

A With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

(The congregation may be seated during the prayers.)

(We will be collecting offerings before and after worship each week. This includes Power of One dollars.)

OFFERING and POWER OF ONE

"Power of One" is a ministry sponsored by your Stewardship Team. We are asking each and every one of our members to give $1.00 above what your normal giving would be. We are asking each member to place this $1.00 bill or change in the offering plate each week. The team is also inviting all children to participate to develop the habit of giving as part of their worship experience. Parents, a penny, nickel, dime, quarter, or dollar bill, any of these will do to help your children develop a habit of giving. These "Power of One" dollars will be used to support local ministries and ministries abroad. The purpose of this ministry is to demonstrate that something as small as one dollar can be used to make a difference in the lives of others.

* OFFERING PRAYER

P God of abundance: you have set before us a plentiful harvest. As we feast on your goodness, strengthen us to labor in your field, and equip us to bear fruit for the good of all. Bless our offerings to continue your work in this world, in the name of Jesus.

C Amen.

* REMEMBERING JESUS' WORDS, PROMISES, AND COMMANDS

* LORD'S PRAYER

P Lord remember us in your kingdom and teach us to sing.

C Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

* INVITATION TO COMMUNION

P Jesus promises to be present to serve you in this meal his very self. Come to the banquet.

C Amen.

*{Distribution will be continuous. All are welcome for communion. Please come down the center aisle starting from the front. Follow directions of the ushers, coming up one side at a time. Please keep 6 feet between those who are not your family members. Pastor will hand you the bread. If you wish to have a gluten-free wafer, please tell Pastor "Gluten-free, please." Afterward, you will choose either wine or white grape juice from the individual cups in the tray – white grape juice in the center with wine surrounding. * CLOSING SONG: CHILD OF LOVE

I was walking the way-side, lost on a lonely road.
I was chasing the high life, tryin' to satisfy my soul.
All the lies I believed in left me crying like the rain.
Then I saw lightning from heaven, and I've never been the same.

CHORUS 1:

I'm gonna climb a mountain, I'm gonna shout about it, I am a child of love!
I found a world of freedom, I found a friend in Jesus, I am a child of love!

I've felt the sting of the fire, but I saw You in the flames.
Just when I thought it was over, You broke me out of the grave – Hallelujah!

CHORUS 2:

I'm gonna climb a mountain, I'm gonna shout about it, I am a child of love!
I found a world of freedom, I found a friend in Jesus, I am a child of love!
Yeah, yeah. . . Yeah! Oh. . . Oh! I am a child of love!
Lemme hear you say yeah. . . Yeah! Oh. . . Oh! I am a child of love!

BRIDGE:

Nothing can change the way that You love me, nothing can change the way.
I be-long to You, yes, I do. Nothing can separate!
Nothing can change the way that You love me, nothing can change the way.
I be-long to You, yes, I do. Nothing can separate!
I'm gonna climb a mountain. . . I am a child of love.
I found a world of freedom. . . I am a child of love.

OTHER READINGS: Genesis 15:1-6

God promises childless and aging Abram that a child of his own will be his heir and that his descendants will number as many as the stars. Abram trusts God's promise, and through this faith he is considered righteous.

The reading begins:

<sup>1</sup>After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." <sup>2</sup>But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" <sup>3</sup>And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." <sup>4</sup>But the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." <sup>5</sup>He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." <sup>6</sup>And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.

PSALM: Psalm 33:12-22

<sup>12</sup>Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD! Happy the people chosen to be God's heritage!
<sup>13</sup>The LORD looks down from heaven, and sees all humankind. <sup>14</sup>God sits firmly enthroned and watches all who dwell on the earth. <sup>15</sup>God fashions all their hearts and observes all their deeds.
<sup>17</sup>The horse gives vain hope for victory; despite its great strength it cannot save. <sup>18</sup>Truly, your eye is upon those who fear you, O LORD, upon those who wait for your steadfast love, <sup>19</sup>to deliver their lives from death, and to keep them alive in time of famine. <sup>20</sup>Our innermost being waits for you, O LORD, our helper and our shield. <sup>21</sup>Surely, our heart rejoices in you, for in your holy name we put our trust. <sup>22</sup>Let your lovingkindness, O LORD, be upon us, even as we place our hope in you.

OTHER READINGS: Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

Abraham and Sarah exemplify the vision of faith that people of God enact in every age. Their hope and trust in God's promise allowed them to face an unknown future and to receive the promise of God.

The reading begins:

<sup>1</sup>Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. <sup>2</sup>Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. <sup>3</sup>By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible. <sup>8</sup>By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. <sup>9</sup>By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. <sup>10</sup>For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. <sup>11</sup>By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old — and Sarah herself was barren — because he considered him faithful who had promised. <sup>12</sup>Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, "as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore." <sup>13</sup>All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, <sup>14</sup>for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. <sup>15</sup>If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. <sup>16</sup>But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

SERVICE OVERVIEW: A KINGDOM FOR THE LITTLE FLOCK

"Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." Jesus promises the kingdom to us, his little flock. We strain our minds with this uninhibited generosity. Even to us, so little and undeserving? Even to us, in the face of so many things to be afraid of? Suddenly the value of everything we hold dear in this world is questioned, and the true value of things becomes plainly clear. We are being given the kingdom! So why not sell our possessions and give to those in need? We are being given the kingdom! So why not wait on expectant tiptoes for the master? When he comes he will wait on us! The Father's free generosity calls forth in us a generosity we have never before known. Fear is now met with anticipation, and tightfistedness with open hands. We are being given the kingdom, so now we know what true treasure looks like. And yet, like our fathers and mothers in faith that the Hebrews reading speaks of, we too "desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one." But in Christ our heavenly country has already arrived. In him, God has freely given us the kingdom.

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION:

Today, we hear about a master who serves his slaves at table. Once again we meet the Son of Man, and as always, there is something of Christ's presence that surprises us. Welcome to worship! Christ welcomes us, forgives us, speaks with us, and serves us bread and wine. Join us in the Master's company.

We are given four different images of the life of faithfulness: we are a flock that is well shepherded; we put our money into sturdy purses; we are slaves served at table by the master; our lives are broken into by God's very self. At holy communion today, we are those very slaves served by the master.

The slaves are waiting faithfully for the master to arrive, and then to their utter surprise the master serves them at the table! How can modern society, with technology undergirding both our brilliance and depravity, make Jesus' call a reality? We, who think that there ought to be no slaves and that the master should be serving everyone at table, find this image nowhere near as shocking as it was to Luke's audience.

Even our most carefully chosen language fails to express the full mercy of God. We see this in the odd final image: the Son of Man, who at the end of time will judge evil and bridge the chasm between God and humankind, is a thief who breaks into our house. When we imagined that a thief might come, we were prepared by having set our house alarm, but then the thief came when we least expected it and carried off our treasures. It is a surprising way to describe the coming of Christ into our lives. Are we like a locked house, hiding inside from everything we fear? What does this mean, then, for those who are physically and spiritually "at home"? How can we care for and welcome those who will never be truly at home among us?

Enshrined in the US Constitution as "endowed" by God, the quest for "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" permeates our American life, yet the "assurance of things hoped for" described in the second reading from Hebrews often ends in disillusion and ruin. So then, what is the difference between the "home" promised by God and the one we seek in this life? How do we keep from falling for the world's vision as opposed to God's? Our identity and worth as children of God make it possible for us to participate as God's disciples now.

KID STUDY:

Today Jesus tells the people not to worry too much about building up treasures on earth. That means not to worry too much about money and things. Instead, we should spend our time building up treasures in heaven. What do you think would be treasures in heaven? Sometimes we worry, or have a tough time separating ourselves from our things. We look around and want what we do not have. God takes care of our needs, and we want to make Him our hope and true treasure. When we live our lives loving and serving our neighbor, we show that living a life of service (being the hands and feet of Jesus) is the most valuable thing we have. Our faith in God's promise is worth more than any "thing" we can ever possess.

INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION:

Abraham and Sarah never gave up responding to God in faith. When their confident assurance was stretched to the limit of its endurance, God fulfilled the promise planted in their hearts so many years earlier. Our confident assurance of hope is intensified in the gospel revelation, a precious little jewel within which the entire gamut of God's dealings with humankind is compressed. The injunction "Be dressed and ready" calls us to be prepared to move at once, as the Israelites were on the night of the Passover in Egypt. Our lamps are to be burning, the light *of faith as our guide. Jesus can reveal to us God's tremendous love only when we are willing to make the changes called for in the light of faith. We are the servants awaiting the return of Christ, not only at the end of time when he will come again to judge the living and the death, but also whenever he comes in the events of our daily life. - Mary Pierre Ellebracht, C.Pp.S.
