INTRODUCTION

Stir up your power, and come! The psalmist's plea in Psalm 80:2 has become familiar to us in the Advent prayers. Isaiah wants God to rip the heavens open. Both cry out for an apparently distant, angry God to show up, to save, to restore. When we hear Jesus describing the coming of the Son of Man with stars falling from heaven, it can sound dire and horrible, not like anything we would ever hope for. But when we really look at the suffering of people God loves, we can share the hope that God would tear open the heavens and come.

LIGHTING OF ADVENT WREATH

* CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

- P Today as we gather for worship we seek God's help to be awake in our faith, to watch for Jesus' return as we live lives of faith. We realize, because of our brokenness, we have at times been lax on growing in our faith and being prepared and awake for Jesus' return. We give into negativity, we forget those less fortunate, and we limit what God can do through us. In this time of confession, let us concentrate on those things we have done or not done this last week, what things we need help with changing in our lives, and being honest with ourselves in humility that we can do better.

(Silence for private confession.)

- P As we confess, please know that Jesus is here to free you, to love you, to use you for the bringing about of his second coming. Refreshed in spirit, let us worship God who forgives and gives us the help we need.

C Amen.

GOSPEL SONG: HOSANNA (PRAISE IS RISING)

Praise is rising, eyes are turning to You, we turn to You.

Hope is stirring, hearts are yearning for You, we long for You.

CHORUS:

'Cause when we see You, we find strength to face the day.

In Your presence, all our fears are washed away... washed away.

Hosanna! Hosanna! You are the God who saves us, worthy of all our praises.

Hosanna! Hosanna! Come have Your way among us!

We welcome you here, Lord Jesus!

GOSPEL: Mark 13:24-37

Jesus encourages his followers to look forward to the day when he returns in power and glory to end all suffering.

- A The holy gospel according to St. Mark, chapter 13, verses 24-37.

[Jesus said:] ²⁴"In those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, ²⁵and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. ²⁶Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in clouds' with great power and glory.

²⁷Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven. ²⁸“From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. ³⁰Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. ³¹Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. ³²“But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. ³³Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. ³⁴It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. ³⁵Therefore, keep awake — for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, ³⁶or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. ³⁷And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.”

GOSPEL SONG: HOSANNA (PRAISE IS RISING)
Hear the sound of hearts returning to You, we turn to You.
In Your kingdom broken lives are made new, You make us new.

CHORUS TWICE:
'Cause when we see You, we find strength to face the day.
In Your presence, all our fears are washed away... washed away.
Hosanna! Hosanna! You are the God who saves us, worthy of all our praises.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Come have Your way among us!
We welcome you here, Lord Jesus!

END:
Come have Your way among us! We welcome You here, Lord Jesus!
Come have Your way among us! We welcome You here, Lord Jesus!

 APOSTLES' CREED
A With the whole church, let us confess our faith.
C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

(The congregation may be seated during the prayers.)

PRAYERS
A With hope and expectation, we offer our prayers for the church, the world, and all who await

A brief silence.

- A Listen to these and all our prayers, O God of hosts, and restore us with your great and everlasting mercy.

C Amen.

 PEACE

- P As Jesus shared peace, let us also share His peace with one another. (Share the "Peace of the Lord" with your neighbors.)

(We will be collecting offerings before and after worship each week. This includes Power of One dollars.)

OFFERING and POWER OF ONE

"Power of One" is a ministry sponsored by your Stewardship Team. We are asking each and every one of our members to give $1.00 above what your normal giving would be. We are asking each member to place this $1.00 bill or change in the offering plate each week. The team is also inviting all children to participate to develop the habit of giving as part of their worship experience. Parents, a penny, nickel, dime, quarter, or dollar bill, any of these will do to help your children develop a habit of giving. These "Power of One" dollars will be used to support local ministries and ministries abroad. The purpose of this ministry is to demonstrate that something as small as one dollar can be used to make a difference in the lives of others.

* OFFERING PRAYER

P God our provider, by your merciful hand abundance springs up from the earth. Receive and bless these gifts of your own bounty. Let them be a sign of your steadfast love and faithfulness for all people, through Jesus Christ our Savior.
C Amen.

* REMEMBERING JESUS' WORDS, PROMISES, AND COMMANDS

OTHER READINGS: Isaiah 64:1-9

This lament comes from a people who have had their hopes shattered. The visions of a rebuilt Jerusalem and a renewed people of God, spoken of in Isaiah 40–55, have not been realized. Instead, the people experience ruin, conflict, and famine. This lament calls God to account — to be the God who has brought deliverance in the past.

The reading begins:

¹O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence — ²as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil — to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence!

³When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. ⁴From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him. ⁵You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways. But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed. ⁶We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. ⁷There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity. ⁸Yet, O LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. ⁹Do not be exceedingly angry, O LORD, and do not remember iniquity forever. Now consider, we are all your people.

PSALM: Psalm 80:1-7, 17-19

¹Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph like a flock; shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim. ²In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, stir up your strength and come to help us. ³Restore us, O God; let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved. ⁴O LORD God of hosts, how long will your anger fume when your people pray? ⁵You have fed them with the bread of tears; you have given them bowls of tears to drink. ⁶You have made us the derision of our neighbors, and our enemies laugh us to scorn. ⁷Restore us, O God of hosts; let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved. ¹⁷Let your hand be upon the one at your right hand, the one you have made so strong for yourself. ¹⁸And so will we never turn away from you; give us life, that we may call upon your name. ¹⁹Restore us, O LORD God of hosts; let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved.

OTHER READINGS: 1 Corinthians 1:3-9

As the Christians in Corinth await the advent of Jesus, Paul reminds them how the Lord has already enriched them through spiritual gifts and will continue to strengthen them until the coming day of the Lord.

The reading begins:

³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind — ⁶just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you — ⁷so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

SERVICE OVERVIEW: OLD PROBLEMS AND NEW BEGINNINGS

The promise of Advent is that God is always at work in the world, bringing new beginnings and a new creation to people and powers long bent on destruction. Yet, because we live in the generation that exists between the “already” of Christ’s resurrection and the “not yet” of God’s full restoration of the creation, we cannot know when that final day will arrive. Instead of becoming preoccupied with the end times, we are counseled to live our lives in a state of preparedness. Trust that your home is God’s home. Trust that God is coming once again to dwell within you. This trust is the strength that will sustain you as we all wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION:

It is the first week the church year and the first week of Advent. As we light the first candle on the Advent wreath, we begin a year-long reading from the gospel of Mark. Welcome to worship! Christ is “advancing” towards us. In the past, God came to us in the life of Jesus. In the present, God comes especially in word and sacrament. In the future, even if there is disaster, God will come to gather us into life.

Jesus speaks of the coming of the Son of Man as something imminent, and illustrates his point via the image of a servant doorkeeper who is to keep watch and stay on the lookout as the household waits for the master’s return. How might we think of ourselves as the doorkeeper? There is a pause in our faith journeys as we await the full revealing of Jesus, and especially at this moment, we are given spiritual gifts for this time of anticipation. How are your gifts a grace not only for the church, but for the people to whom we carry our witness of death and resurrection?

We regularly see or experience the end result of other people’s work. We dine at a restaurant, but the boiling of water that cooked the noodles happens in a hidden kitchen. We purchase a piece of pottery, but do not see the artist at work in the studio. Today’s passage from Isaiah includes images of God as the fire that makes water boil and God as the potter. In both cases the suggestion is that the world experiences God indirectly. Do you see yourself and others as conduits of God’s grace? Think of how powerful it is - especially in times where we or others may feel God’s absence.

Being awake and alert to possibilities does not always remove the element of surprise. Indeed, God’s grace is surprising. If we were not surprised by it, we might be able to manage ourselves to grace or begin to expect it in ways that feel more entitled than free. Reflect on the surprising nature of grace where you may have experienced surprising new creation and transformation.

KID STUDY:

It is the season of Advent and we are waiting. Soon we will experience Christmas decorations, holiday parties, and winter break from school. The season of Advent is like the branch of a tree in winter. It is dormant. It may look dead, but life is resting in the twigs, awaiting spring. God always comes to us at Sunday worship, but God also is hidden in places that surprise us. As we wait for Jesus to be born, remember to take time to watch for Jesus. Prepare for Jesus by making room for him in your home, in your mind, and in your heart. Jesus will be here soon!

INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION:

Some people see the future Day of Judgment, whether by bomb or Bible, as a disastrous time. For them, that Day will be a time of weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth. For most of us the Day of Judgment, the End of Time, the Second Coming of Christ, whatever you want to call it, is something without any real meaning. We don’t look forward to it with dread, because we don’t look forward to it at all. Yet Advent calls us to hope for the coming of Christ. This positive hope comes from knowing that we already belong to Christ and already live in communion with him and each other. Through grace we are made ready meet Christ, both in our daily lives and at the Day of Judgment. Advent reminds us to take time to watch, to make space for that waiting which is so important to our spiritual journey, and to look to tomorrow in positive hope, living expectantly for the coming of the Christ. - Linda L.
