INTRODUCTION

Today's festival is a bridge between the Advent-Christmas-Epiphany cycle that comes to a close today and the Lent-Easter cycle that begins in several days. On a high mountain Jesus is revealed as God's beloved Son, echoing the words at his baptism. This vision of glory sustains us as Jesus faces his impending death in Jerusalem. We turn this week to Ash Wednesday and our yearly baptismal journey from Lent to Easter. Some churches put aside the alleluia at the conclusion of today's liturgy. This word of joy will be omitted during the penitential season of Lent and will be sung again at Easter.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

SIGNING OF ATTENDANCE PADS

(Ushers will be handing out Attendance Pads during the announcements. Please be sure to sign your name and contact information.)

 CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P We confess that even though we at times have been taken up by Jesus to witness a mountain top experience, we have forgotten and have been crippled in fear. We have been told by God the Father through the Holy Scriptures to listen to Jesus, and we still neglect, debate and limit His voice. We come before God to open our hearts to be transformed again by Grace. So let us take a few brief moments to reflect on our shortcomings and sins and ask God for forgiveness.

(Silence for private confession.)

P If you are truly sorry and asking God for help, here is the promise he commanded the leaders in his church to proclaim, "You are forgiven." May this forgiveness free you and help you to live; to live in Jesus' name.

C Amen.

GOSPEL SONG: GOD OF WONDERS

Lord of all creation, of water, earth, and sky;
The heavens are Your tabernacle! Glory to the Lord on High!

CHORUS

God of wonders beyond our galaxy, You are holy, holy!
The universe declares Your majesty, You are holy, holy!
Lord of heaven and earth.... Lord of heaven and earth....

GOSPEL: Matthew 17:1-9

Shortly before he enters Jerusalem, where he will be crucified, Jesus is revealed to Peter, James, and John in a mountaintop experience of divine glory called the transfiguration.

A The holy gospel according to St. Matthew, chapter 17, verses 1-9.

¹Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. ²And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. ³Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. ⁴Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” ⁵While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” ⁶When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. ⁷But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” ⁸And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone. ⁹As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

GOSPEL SONG: GOD OF WONDERS

Early in the morning, I will celebrate the light.

When I stumble in the darkness, I will call Your name by night.

CHORUS

*God of wonders beyond our galaxy, You are holy, holy!
The universe declares Your majesty, You are holy, holy!
Lord of heaven and earth.... Lord of heaven and earth....*

BRIDGE

Hallelujah... to the Lord of heaven and earth!
Hallelujah... to the Lord of heaven and earth!
Hallelujah... to the Lord of heaven and earth!
You are holy, holy!
You are holy, holy!

LAST CHORUS

God of wonders beyond our galaxy, You are holy, holy!
Precious Lord, reveal Your heart to me. You are holy, holy!
The universe declares Your majesty,
You are holy, holy! Holy, holy!
Hallelujah... to the Lord of heaven and earth!
Hallelujah... to the Lord of heaven and earth!
Hallelujah... to the Lord of heaven and earth!

CHILDREN'S SERMON

SERMON

 SERMON SONG: REVELATION

My life has led me down the road that's so uncertain.
Now I am left alone and I am broken – tryin' to find my way
Tryin' to find the faith that's gone.

This time I know that You are holding all the answers.
I'm tired of losing hope and taking chances
On roads that never seem to be the ones that bring me home.

CHORUS:

*Give me a revelation! Show me what to do!
'Cause I've been tryin' to find my way. I haven't got a clue.
Tell me should I stay here, or do I need to move?
Give me a revelation! I've got nothing without You.
I've got nothing without You.*

My life has led me down this path that's ever-winding.
Through every twist and turn I'm always finding – that I am lost again.
Tell me when this road will ever end.

CHORUS:

*Give me a revelation! Show me what to do!
'Cause I've been tryin' to find my way. I haven't got a clue.
Tell me should I stay here, or do I need to move?
Give me a revelation! I've got nothing without You.
I've got nothing without. . .*

BRIDGE:

I don't know where I can turn. Tell me, when will I learn?
Won't you show me where I need to go?
Oh. . . let me follow Your lead.
I know that it's the only way that I can get back home, OH!

LAST CHORUS:

Give me a revelation! Show me what to do!
'Cause I've been tryin' to find my way. I haven't got a clue.
Tell me should I stay here, or do I need to move?
Give me a revelation! I've got nothing without You.
I've got nothing without You, no. Oh, no. Oh, no.
Oh, give me a revelation. . . Oh. . . Oh. . .
I've got nothing without You. I've got nothing without You.

 APOSTLES' CREED

A With the whole church, let us confess our faith.
C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;

he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

(The congregation may be seated during the prayers.)

(We will be collecting offerings before and after worship each week. This includes Power of One dollars.)

60 SECONDS OF STEWARDSHIP

OFFERING and POWER OF ONE

"Power of One" is a ministry sponsored by your Stewardship Team. We are asking each and every one of our members to give $1.00 above what your normal giving would be. We are asking each member to place this $1.00 bill or change in the offering plate each week. The team is also inviting all children to participate to develop the habit of giving as part of their worship experience. Parents, a penny, nickel, dime, quarter, or dollar bill, any of these will do to help your children develop a habit of giving. These "Power of One" dollars will be used to support local ministries and ministries abroad. The purpose of this ministry is to demonstrate that something as small as one dollar can be used to make a difference in the lives of others.

* OFFERING PRAYER

P Receive these offerings in thanksgiving for all your works of merciful power, and transform our hearts and actions to reveal your love.

C Amen.

* REMEMBERING JESUS' WORDS, PROMISES, AND COMMANDS

* LORD'S PRAYER

P Lord remember us in your kingdom and teach us to sing.

C Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

* INVITATION TO COMMUNION

P Come and be transformed by Jesus' gift.

C Amen.

DISTRIBUTION OF COMMUNION (Continuous with Individual Cups)

{Distribution will be continuous. All are welcome for communion. Please come down the center aisle starting from the front. Follow directions of the ushers, coming up one side at a time. Pastor will hand you the bread. If you wish to have a gluten-free wafer, please tell Pastor "Gluten-free, please." Afterward, you will choose either wine or white grape juice from the individual cups in the tray – white grape juice in the center with wine surrounding. Place the empty cups in the baskets located off to the side. Although communion is continuous, you are welcome to kneel at the rail in prayer after receiving communion. Please return to your seat by the side aisles.}

* PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

P Holy One, we thank you for the healing that springs forth abundantly from this table. Renew our strength to do justice, love kindness, and journey humbly with you.

C Amen.

* BLESSING

P We proclaim with the Apostle Paul, "Now to God who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to the power that is at work in us; to God be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen."
(Ephesians 3:20-21)

C Amen.

* CLOSING SONG: YES, HE CAN!

Sometimes I wonder, "Is He faithful? Does He see me in my trouble?

Does He understand?" Some-times I question if He's able.

Can He rescue? Can He save me again and again? But when I look back. . .

CHORUS:

Did He move every mountain? Did He part every sea? Yes, He did! So yes, He can!

(Oh, oh, oh) Did He defeat the darkness? Did He deliver me?

Yes, He did! So yes, He can! Whoa. . . Yes, He did! So yes, He can!

[2nd TIME TO BRIDGE]

'Cause some-times those voices try to tell me I'm for-gotten, and I've fallen too far from His hands. But I know what kind of God He is,

And I'm trusting in His promises. I'm believing and I'm singing, "Yes, He can!" CHORUS

BRIDGE:

'Cause I've seen too much now I can't deny.

He's come through every single time.

From the beginning until the end. He did. . . He will. . . He can!

LAST CHORUS:

Did He move every mountain? Did He part every sea? Yes, He did! So yes, He can!
(Oh, oh, oh) Did He defeat the darkness? Did He deliver me?
Yes, He did! So yes, He can!
Did He move every mountain? Did He part every sea? Yes, He did! So yes, He can!
(Oh, oh, oh) Did He defeat the darkness? Did He deliver me?
Yes, He did! So yes, He can! Whoa. . . Yes, He did! So yes, He can!
Yes, He did! Yes, He can!

► Children's Activity Bags are available for use by our young members and guests! You can find them on the coat hooks in the coat area of the narthex. After worship, please place the used activity bags and their contents in the receptacle in the narthex. Thank you! ☺

Offering Envelopes are HERE!! Our offering envelopes finally arrived! You can find them in the narthex in alphabetical order according to your last name. If you have any questions, please let the church office know. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we waited for the envelopes. ☺

The 2023 Flower Calendar is up in the narthex! It is hanging by the glass entrance doors. If you would like to have flowers in church on a certain weekend, please sign your name next to the date for that special weekend and write your phone number. Elena will call you the beginning of that week to remind you that you signed up for flowers and will ask for the occasion (such as birthday, wedding anniversary, in memory of someone, etc.) to put in the bulletin. The monthly newsletter will also have who signed up for flowers for the month. Thank you for adding beauty to our sanctuary and worship services!

Attendance Pads Reminders: Thank you to everyone for doing such a good job signing the attendance pads each week when you attend worship! Our records are more accurate when you sign the attendance pads. Here are a couple of things that will help get our records even more accurate and up-to-date: 1) When signing in, please write everyone in your family who is attending worship. When you write “John Doe Family”, we do not know how many people that is and we don’t know who exactly attended worship. Was it John, Sue and Sally Doe, or the whole family of John, Sue, Jim, Tom and Sally Doe? 2) Please include your address and phone number. This is helpful especially when we have guests signing in. When they see the members writing addresses and phone numbers, guests are more likely to do the same. We like to welcome our guests by sending them a card after their visit. That is hard to do when we do not have contact information. It is also a way for us to keep up with our members when they have a change of address or phone number. Thank you for taking the time to do these items. Our staff and volunteers who take care of the personal records and oversee attendance records greatly appreciate your help.

OTHER READINGS: Exodus 24:12-18

At Mount Sinai, Moses experienced the presence of God for forty days and forty nights. The “glory of the LORD” settled on the mountain, and on the seventh day God called out to Moses. On the mountain God gave Moses the stone tablets inscribed with the ten commandments.

The reading begins:

¹²The LORD said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.” ¹³So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. ¹⁴To the elders he had said, “Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.” ¹⁵Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. ¹⁶The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud.

¹⁷Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. ¹⁸Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

PSALM: Psalm 2

¹Why are the nations in an uproar? Why do the peoples mutter empty threats? ²Why do the kings of the earth rise up in revolt, and the princes plot together, against the LORD and against the LORD’s anointed? ³“Let us break their yoke,” they say; “let us cast off their bonds from us.” ⁴God whose throne is in heaven is laughing; the LORD holds them in derision. ⁵Then in wrath God speaks to them, and in rage fills them with terror. ⁶“As for me, I have anointed my king upon Zion, my holy mountain.” ⁷Let me announce the decree of the LORD, who said to me, “You are my son; this day have I begotten you. ⁸Ask of me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance and the ends of the earth for your possession. ⁹You shall crush them with an iron rod and shatter them like a piece of pottery.” ¹⁰And now, you kings, be wise; be warned, you rulers of the earth. ¹¹Submit to the LORD with fear, and with trembling bow in worship; ¹²lest the LORD be angry, and you perish in a sudden blaze of wrath. Happy are all who take refuge in God!

OTHER READINGS: 2 Peter 1:16-21

At the transfiguration, God’s voice was heard, declaring Jesus to be the beloved Son. By the activity of the Holy Spirit, God’s voice continues to be heard through the word of scripture.

The reading begins:

¹⁶For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. ¹⁷For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, “This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.” ¹⁸We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. ²⁰First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one’s own interpretation, ²¹because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

SERVICE OVERVIEW: FINDING GOD IN THE CLOUDS

We often speak of and remember “mountaintop experiences” as joyous times. We look forward to experiencing them with excitement and look back upon them fondly. Eventually, of course, the time comes to leave that mountain. Like the disciples, we take the journey with Jesus down to the valley to get dusty with the ashes of daily life. Today is the end of a glorious season celebrating Christ’s light and the beginning of a no-less-real season of Jesus’ life and of our own lives that is the “valley” of the season of Lent. But don’t worry – there is plenty to learn and plenty to do down in the valley! The traditional disciplines of Lent - fasting, prayer, and gifts to the poor - all help us maintain the eyes, ears, and heart to see, hear, and serve God whenever and however God appears. Are your eyes, ears, and hearts open to receive and welcome God?

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION:

Today we conclude the time after Epiphany by celebrating the Transfiguration. Jesus went up a mountain and showed himself to be divine. Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, is in when Jesus walks up another mountain and shows himself to be human. Welcome to worship! Praise Jesus Christ! Hear him speak. Partake of his body.

The mountaintop moments in today’s readings are quite different than our common definition. They are awe-inspiring but also full of devouring fires, clouds, and fear. The disciples’ vision is obscured. The familiar becomes unknown. Afterward, nothing is the same. People get lost in fires, clouds, and fear in everyday life. We become unable to find our way. God’s presence is where we get both lost and found.

In the narrative of the transfiguration, Jesus’ divinity is shown to the disciples. God’s glory breaks through to give us testimony to Jesus’ status as the beloved Son of God. Glory is something that belongs to God and is given or reflected in the world around us.

We might first associate glory with splendor in the natural world, like literally experiencing the vast expanse and beauty of a mountaintop. Be open to the glory and splendor plentiful in your everyday life. It will interrupt the mundane with brilliance! When do you experience God’s glory? Perhaps you notice it in a neighbor’s smile or the quiet sounds of your morning routine. Glory is something that points God’s people back to God. As much as we would like, the truth is we can neither plan our mountaintop experiences with God nor decide how long we stay there. God’s place is to invite. Our place is to respond, faces bowed to the ground. Can you think of a mountaintop experience of glory that led you to recognize or praise God in a new, meaningful way? Did this experience inspire a search for glory elsewhere?

KID STUDY:

Today, Jesus and his disciples go on a hike. They go to the top of a mountain, and when they get there, something amazing happens! Jesus’ appearance is transfigured. That’s a big word that means to be changed or transformed. Jesus was transformed in front of the disciples so they would understand that he was the son of God. Think about how you have transformed. You look quite different than you did when you were born. You can walk and talk. You can ride a bike. You can learn and you can read. You can think about things. You can decide how you will behave. Transformation will happen throughout your life. The world around us transforms with the changing of the seasons. The look of our worship space also transforms when the church seasons change. Today the paraments are white, and next week they will change to purple, the color for the season of Lent.

INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION:

I think in the transfiguration, Jesus collapses any meaningful distinction between lofty mountains and dusty valleys. Fulfilling the words of the prophet Isaiah that “Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together.”

Jesus has made low even the mount of his own transfiguration to be with us. You need not reach for glory, because Holiness has come to dwell with us, in the valley of our shadows. You need no longer climb up to, strive for, or achieve holiness - for it is too busy already reaching into the troubled dirt of your humanity. Holiness has come to dwell with us in the valley of our shadows. The curtain of the temple is being torn in two so that grit and glory are indistinguishable. Holiness has come to dwell with us in the valley of our shadows. And so the brokenhearted, and the fearful, and the confused, and the lost and the least and the lonely can say... Amen. - Pastor Nadia Bolz-Weber
