INTRODUCTION

All the baptized have a calling in God's world. God calls not just pastors and deacons but also the youngest child, like Samuel. The story of the calling of Nathanael plays with the idea of place. Nathanael initially dismisses Jesus because he comes from Nazareth. But where we come from isn't important; it's where — or rather whom — we come to. Jesus refers to Jacob, who had a vision in a place he called "the house of God, and . . . the gate of heaven" (Gen. 28:17). Jesus says he himself is the place where Nathanael will meet God.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

SIGNING OF ATTENDANCE PADS

(Ushers will be handing out Attendance Pads during the announcements. Please be sure to sign your name and contact information.)

* CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P We believe that the Bible contains instruction for us as followers of Jesus Christ to do what he asked of us. He taught the first disciples to help others to confess their sins and to proclaim to them the promise of forgiveness afterwards. So let us take a few brief moments in silence to open our hearts and minds to Jesus, to confess the things that weigh heavy on our hearts and the things we need help with so we might be more in line with what Jesus commands.

(Silence for private confession.)

P If you are truly sorry and asking God for help, here is the promise he commanded the leaders in his church to proclaim, "You are forgiven." May this forgiveness free you and help you to live; to live in Jesus' name.

C Amen.

GOSPEL SONG: DEVOTION

You are boundless mercy, You are endless grace.

You are sweet forgiveness, ceaseless faithfulness; washing over me...

You are sov'riegn Father, You are healing King.

You are tender Savior, righteous offering; Poured out for me...

CHORUS:

And I surrender to You. Lord, I'm yielding all I am to You.

You have captivated me. And I come to give my devotion.

END:

Yes, I come to give my devotion.

O Lord, I come to give my devotion.

GOSPEL: John 1:43-51

In John's gospel, Jesus' ministry begins with the call of disciples, who then bring others to Jesus. Philip's friend Nathanael moves from skepticism to faith when he accepts the invitation to "Come and see."

A The holy gospel according to St. John, chapter 1, verses 43-51.

<sup>43</sup>The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.”
<sup>44</sup>Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. <sup>45</sup>Philip found Nathanael and said to him, “We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.” <sup>46</sup>Nathanael said to him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip said to him, “Come and see.” <sup>47</sup>When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, “Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!” <sup>48</sup>Nathanael asked him, “Where did you get to know me?” Jesus answered, “I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.” <sup>49</sup>Nathanael replied, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!” <sup>50</sup>Jesus answered, “Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.” <sup>51</sup>And he said to him, “Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.”

OFFERING and POWER OF ONE

"Power of One" is a ministry sponsored by your Stewardship Team. We are asking each and every one of our members to give $1.00 above what your normal giving would be. We are asking each member to place this $1.00 bill or change in the offering plate each week. The team is also inviting all children to participate to develop the habit of giving as part of their worship experience. Parents, a penny, nickel, dime, quarter, or dollar bill, any of these will do to help your children develop a habit of giving. These "Power of One" dollars will be used to support local ministries and ministries abroad. The purpose of this ministry is to demonstrate that something as small as one dollar can be used to make a difference in the lives of others.

* CLOSING SONG: CHILD OF LOVE
I was walking the way-side, lost on a lonely road.
I was chasing the high life, tryin' to satisfy my soul.
All the lies I believed in left me crying like the rain.
Then I saw lightning from heaven, and I've never been the same.

CHORUS 1:
I'm gonna climb a mountain, I'm gonna shout about it, I am a child of love!
I found a world of freedom, I found a friend in Jesus, I am a child of love!

I've felt the sting of the fire, but I saw You in the flames.
Just when I thought it was over, You broke me out of the grave – Hallelujah!

CHORUS 2:
I'm gonna climb a mountain, I'm gonna shout about it, I am a child of love!
I found a world of freedom, I found a friend in Jesus, I am a child of love!
Yeah, yeah. . . Yeah! Oh. . . Oh! I am a child of love!
Lemme hear you say yeah. . . Yeah! Oh. . . Oh! I am a child of love!

BRIDGE:
Nothing can change the way that You love me, nothing can change the way.
I be-long to You, yes, I do. Nothing can separate!
Nothing can change the way that You love me, nothing can change the way.

OTHER READINGS:     1 Samuel 3:1-10
At a time when visions are rare and unexpected, the LORD comes to Samuel and calls him to speak the divine word. Though just a boy, Samuel responds to God obediently, as Eli the priest has taught him to respond. This marks the beginning of Samuel's prophetic ministry.

The reading begins:
<sup>1</sup>Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The word of the LORD was rare in those days; visions were not widespread. <sup>2</sup>At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; <sup>3</sup>the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" <sup>5</sup>and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. <sup>6</sup>The LORD called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." <sup>7</sup>Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. <sup>8</sup>The LORD called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy. <sup>9</sup>Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place. <sup>10</sup>Now the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

PSALM:     Psalm 139:1-6, 13-18
<sup>1</sup>LORD, you have searched me out; O LORD, you have known me. <sup>2</sup>You know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from afar. <sup>3</sup>You trace my journeys and my resting-places and are acquainted with all my ways. <sup>4</sup>Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, but you, O LORD, know it altogether. <sup>5</sup>You encompass me, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me. <sup>6</sup>Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain to it. <sup>13</sup>For you yourself created my inmost parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb. <sup>14</sup>I will thank you because I am marvelously made; your works are wonderful, and I know it well. <sup>15</sup>My body was not hidden from you, while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth. <sup>16</sup>Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book; my days were fashioned before they came to be. <sup>17</sup>How deep I find your thoughts, O God! How great is the sum of them! <sup>18</sup>If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the sand; to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.

OTHER READINGS: 1 Corinthians 6:12-20

Paul helps the Corinthians understand that God has claimed the entirety of their lives through the death of Christ. Hence Christian relationships and conduct, including areas of human sexuality, are to reflect the reality that we belong to Christ and that the Holy Spirit lives within us.

The reading begins:

<sup>12</sup>“All things are lawful for me,” but not all things are beneficial. “All things are lawful for me,” but I will not be dominated by anything. <sup>13</sup>“Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food,” and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. <sup>14</sup>And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. <sup>15</sup>Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! <sup>16</sup>Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, “The two shall be one flesh.” <sup>17</sup>But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. <sup>18</sup>Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself. <sup>19</sup>Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? <sup>20</sup>For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

SERVICE OVERVIEW: COME AND SEE. FOLLOW ME.

We live in a culture of invitation. Television invites us to join complicated story arcs so that we feel connected to the characters. Commercials invite us to see their product as a new movement and invite us to join it. We are invited to join groups on Facebook and invited into chat rooms and blog responses. The number of social networks is exploding as we are invited into ever expanding ways to connect.

Invitation is an essential part of our walk of faith, but here we frequently see ourselves not as the invited but rather the one who is supposed to be doing the inviting. We can misuse invitation, maybe using the phrase “invite Jesus into your heart,” which often results in the misunderstanding that we are carrying a little bit of Jesus wherever we go. But today’s gospel emphasizes not invitation as our call to others to join the walk of faith but rather Jesus’ invitation to us to follow him. Jesus’ invitation is not that we carry him with us but rather that we follow where he would lead. When Christ invites Philip to “follow me,” may we hear that invitation in our own ears!

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION:

Last week was Jesus’ baptism, and this week he calls the disciples. Just like the disciples, after our baptism we are called to follow Him. Listen to the scripture as it presents the meaning and presence of Christ. John’s presentation of several Christological titles (son of Joseph, Rabbi, Son of God, King of Israel, and Son of Man) is tied to the call of the disciples. Welcome to worship! Respond to the call! Explore the meaning of each of these titles and the salvation to which each name points. Come and see!

Finish this sentence: “Can anything good come out of _____?” The way we fill in the blank reveals the implicit biases we carry toward certain places and the people who come from them. In honest reflection, what part of town, part of the country, or part of the world flashes to mind with that question? For the disciple Nathanael, the answer is the small backwater village of Nazareth. Yet Nathanael is amazed as he encounters God in Jesus the Nazarene. Throughout scripture, God is revealed in unlikely people and places, challenging biases and crumbling prejudices. What is a bias of yours that needs challenging today?

Philip invites Nathanael to come and see for himself who Jesus is, and the trajectory of Nathanael’s life is changed forever. In Philip we have a model for Christian evangelism. Like the boy Samuel in our first reading, we are messengers who are given God’s word in order to bear it to others. First Samuel reads, “The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.” Why? What kept people from encountering God? Could it be that those charged with bearing God’s word stopped saying, “Come and see”? How does worship invite the us to come and see Jesus? More importantly, how do we bear the invitation to encounter God to our wider community? The text says that Samuel did not yet know the Lord, yet he receives and bears God’s word to the seasoned priest Eli. How do we in the church, who presume ourselves the mediators of the holy, stay open to receiving God’s word from those we assume do not yet know God?

Jesus heralds Nathanael as “an Israelite in whom there is no deceit.” When Nathanael asks how Jesus knows him, Jesus says he saw him under the fig tree before Phillip called him. But it was under the fig tree where Nathanael expressed extreme skepticism about Jesus’ prospects as the Messiah, and even disparaged his hometown. Is Jesus commending Nathanael for his honesty? Is he saying that a healthy dose of skepticism is something he wants on his team? Jesus does not scold Nathanel, but praises him! His initial reaction and concerns about Jesus are not disqualifying to his discipleship. That is great news for anyone who expresses doubt and even cynicism along on their journeys of faith. Not all of Christ’s disciples immediately follow without some convincing. When Nathanael comes to Jesus, despite his doubts, he encounters something that captures him enough to believe.

KID STUDY:

Nathaniel is minding his own business when his friend Philip tells him that they have found the Messiah. At that time, everyone had been waiting for hundreds of years for the Messiah, who was supposed to be the champion God promised to save Israel. Philip runs up to Nathanel saying, “We’ve found him! This is the guy Moses wrote about. This is the guy God promised through the prophets. He’s here! His name is Jesus, and he’s from Nazareth!” Instead of being excited, though, Nathanel seems cynical. He replies, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Nazareth was a small, ordinary village of about 400 people, nowhere of any importance. It’s not even mentioned in the Old Testament. It’s not somewhere heroes come from, is it? It’s certainly not somewhere Nathanel would expect to find God. It’s not an accident that when God chooses to break into our world, it's in a small town, through regular people like us.

As followers of Jesus, we are invited to see people the way God sees them - as beloved children no matter where they're from, to see all people as we see ourselves. We are called to stand up for the rights and dignity of all of God's children. We are called to invite people to rethink the way they see other people that are different from them. That is what God is doing in the world. When we don't place limits on who other people are, we are part of the good things God is doing.

INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION:

Every one of us forms an idea of Christ that is limited and incomplete. It is cut according to our own measure. We make him not only the incarnation of God, but also the incarnation of the things we and our society and our part of society happen to live for. Therefore, it is not enough merely to imitate the Christ we have in our imagination. We read the gospels not merely to get a picture or an idea of Christ, but to enter in and pass through the words of revelation to establish, by faith, a vital contact with the Christ who dwells in our souls as God. If we depend on our own ideas, own judgment and our own efforts to reproduce the life of Christ, we will only act out some kind of pious charade which will ultimately scare everybody we meet because it will be so stiff and artificial and so dead. It is the Spirit of God that must teach us who Christ is and form Christ in us and transform us into other Christs. For me to become Christ is to enter into the life of the whole Christ, the mystical body made up of the head and the members, Christ and all who are incorporated in him by his Spirit. - Thomas Merton [Thomas Merton, New Seeds of Contemplation (New York: New Directions, 1961), 155-57]
