INTRODUCTION

As we continue through the time after Epiphany, stories of the call to discipleship show us the implications of our baptismal calling to show Christ to the world. Jesus begins proclaiming the good news and calling people to repentance right after John the Baptist is arrested for preaching in a similar way. Knowing that John was later executed, we see at the very outset the cost of discipleship. Still, the two sets of brothers leave everything they have known and worked for all their lives to follow Jesus and fish for people.

PRELUDE

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

SIGNING OF ATTENDANCE PADS

(Ushers will be handing out Attendance Pads during the announcements. Please be sure to sign your name and contact information.)

* CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P We begin our worship in the name of the Triune God in which we are baptized, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another, first privately then together publicly.

Silence for reflection and private confession of personal sins, then join in with combined voices this printed confession.

P Most merciful God,

C we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

P God has spoken: The time of grace is now. In Jesus, the reign of God has come near. By the authority of ☩ Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven. You are God's beloved.

C Amen.

* HYMN ELW - #661 "I Love to Tell the Story"

1. I love to tell the story of unseen things above, of Jesus and his glory, of Jesus and his love.
I love to tell the story, because I know it's true;
it satisfies my longings as nothing else would do.

REFRAIN:

I love to tell the story; 'twill be my theme in glory
to tell the old, old story of Jesus and his love.

2. I love to tell the story: how pleasant to repeat what seems, each time I tell it, more wonderfully sweet!
I love to tell the story, for some have never heard the message of salvation from God's own holy word.

REFRAIN:
*I love to tell the story; 'twill be my theme in glory
to tell the old, old story of Jesus and his love.*

3. I love to tell the story, for those who know it best seem hungering and thirsting to hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song,
I'll sing the old, old story that I have loved so long. REFRAIN

FIRST READING: Jonah 3:1-5, 10

A Our first reading is from Jonah, chapter 3, verses 1-5 and 10.

The book of Jonah is a comedy starring a reluctant prophet who is given a one-sentence message: Nineveh will be destroyed in forty days. Much to Jonah's dismay, the people of Nineveh repent. The point of the story is to get the reader to wrestle with the question "On whom should God have mercy?"

The reading begins:

¹The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying, ²"Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you." ³So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. ⁴Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" ⁵And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. ¹⁰When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 62:5-12

A The Psalm today is from Psalm 62, verses 5-12. We will read the Psalm responsively. The congregation will please respond by reading the words in bold print.

⁵For God alone I wait in silence; truly, my hope is in God.

⁶God alone is my rock and my salvation, my stronghold, so that I shall never be shaken.

⁷In God is my deliverance and my honor; God is my strong rock and my refuge.

⁸Put your trust in God always, O people, pour out your hearts before the one who is our refuge.

⁹Those of high degree are but a fleeting breath; those of low estate cannot be trusted. Placed on the scales together they weigh even less than a breath.

¹⁰Put no trust in extortion; in robbery take no empty pride; though wealth increase, set not your heart upon it.

¹¹God has spoken once, twice have I heard it, that power belongs to God.

¹²Steadfast love belongs to you, O Lord, for you repay all according to their deeds.

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

A Our second reading is from 1 Corinthians, chapter 7, verses 29-31.
Paul does not disapprove of marriage or other human social institutions. He does, however, want Christians to live in the present in fervent anticipation of God's future, which even now has dawned through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The reading begins:

²⁹Brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, ³⁰and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, ³¹and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

A The word of the Lord. C Thanks be to God.

A Please stand as you are comfortable for the gospel.

* GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: (Sung)

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.

* GOSPEL: Mark 1:14-20

Before Jesus calls his first disciples, he proclaims a message that becomes known as “the gospel” or good news from God. God is ready to rule our lives. Those who realize this will respond with repentance and faith.

P The holy gospel according to St. Mark, chapter 1, verses 14-20.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

¹⁴Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, ¹⁵and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.” ¹⁶As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea — for they were fishermen. ¹⁷And Jesus said to them, “Follow me and I will make you fish for people.” ¹⁸And immediately they left their nets and followed him. ¹⁹As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. ²⁰Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

P The gospel of the Lord. C Praise to you, O Christ.

* HYMN ELW - #817 “You Have Come Down to the Lakeshore”

1. You have come down to the lakeshore seeking neither the wise nor the wealthy, but only asking for me to follow.

REFRAIN:

*Sweet Lord, you have looked into my eyes;
kindly smiling, you've called out my name. . . .
On the sand I have abandoned my small boat;
now with you, I will seek other seas.*

2. You know full well what I have, Lord:
neither treasure nor weapons for conquest,
just these my fishnets and will for working. REFRAIN

3. You need my hands, my exhaustion, working love for the rest of the weary – a love that's willing to go on loving. REFRAIN

4. You who have fished other waters;
you, the longing of souls that are yearning:
O loving Friend, you have come to call me. REFRAIN

* APOSTLES' CREED

A With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

(The congregation may be seated during the prayers.)

OFFERING and POWER OF ONE

“Power of One” is a ministry sponsored by your Stewardship Team. We are asking each and every one of our members to give $1.00 above what your normal giving would be. We are asking each member to place this $1.00 bill or change in the offering plate each week. The team is also inviting all children to participate to develop the habit of giving as part of their worship experience. Parents, a penny, nickel, dime, quarter, or dollar bill, any of these will do to help your children develop a habit of giving. These “Power of One” dollars will be used to support local ministries and ministries abroad. The purpose of this ministry is to demonstrate that something as small as one dollar can be used to make a difference in the lives of others.

UPCOMING COMMEMORATIONS

Sunday, January 21, 2024 Agnes, martyr, died around 304
Agnes was a girl of about thirteen living in Rome. The details of her martyrdom are not clear, but she gave witness to her faith and was put to death as a result, most likely by the sword. The church has honored her as one of the chief martyrs of her time.

Thursday, January 25, 2024 Conversion of Paul
The week of prayer begun by the remembrance of Peter's confession now comes to an end as we recall the pivotal moment in the life of the other pillar of the early church, the apostle Paul. His encounter with the risen Christ turned him from persecutor of the followers of Christ to one of their leaders.

Friday, January 26, 2024 Timothy, Titus, and Silas, missionaries
These three early Christian men were missionary companions of the apostle Paul. Timothy became bishop of Ephesus, Titus bishop of Crete, and Silas was imprisoned with Paul at Philippi until they were delivered by an earthquake.

Saturday, January 27, 2024 Lydia, Dorcas, and Phoebe, witnesses to the faith
Women as well as men were important Christian leaders from the beginning, as demonstrated by these coworkers of the apostle Paul. Lydia, a seller of purple goods, lent her home for a church; Dorcas was known for charitable works; and Phoebe was a deacon in the church at Cenchrae.

SERVICE OVERVIEW: WHEN SAYING YES REQUIRES SAYING NO
Saying yes to one thing often requires saying no to something else. Jonah - after fleeing from the mission to which God was calling him (and three days and nights in the belly of the fish!) - now says “No!” to his former urges and “Yes!” to God as he sets out as God’s prophet to Nineveh.

Paul invites us to say “No!” to trivial matters and “Yes!” to the things of God that have serious and eternal consequences. Jesus calls the disciples to say “No!” to their boats and nets and families and much of everything else they have known and to say “Yes!” to his “Follow me and I will make you fish for people.”

Jonah struggles. So do we. Like Jonah, we sometimes run away from God’s call. Simon, Andrew, James, and John make it all seem so easy. One little word of invitation from Jesus and these men turn in an instant from fishers to disciples. Most of us live somewhere in the middle, not resisting God’s call with the vigor of Jonah but certainly responding more slowly and ambiguously than the disciples. So a question for today is: To what is God calling us?

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION:

The word “Epiphany” means “the showing forth of God.” The readings during worship after Epiphany, and our participation in the sacrament, continue to show forth Jesus to be our God. Welcome to worship! Today, Jesus calls the disciples – and us – to repent, believe, and follow him.

The Gospel of Mark is a fast-moving narrative. In this passage, we see Jesus quickly call Simon, Andrew, James, and John while they are fishing. Immediately they leave what they are doing to follow Jesus. They don’t pause to think about what Jesus is asking them to do. They don’t go through a discernment period with their elders, friends, family, and church. They don’t say, “Wait, Jesus, I need to finish this thing first.” No. They hear Jesus’ call and follow immediately. How many times have we felt or even known what God wanted us to do, but resisted? What might God be calling us to right now that we think is impossible? What might God want to do through us? Through you? Reflect on a time when you felt God wanted you to do something. Did you do it immediately? Did you hesitate, run away, or never do it at all?

When Jesus calls us to believe in the good news and follow him, our lives are “immediately” altered by the proclamation of the word. The adverb “immediately” appears twice here and 27 times in the NRSV translation of Mark’s gospel, not counting all the use of “at once.” So it is that we rise to our feet, ready to follow.

The gospel describes the first disciples as fishermen. Though a common profession at the time, it establishes the early Christian imagery of baptism as water, believers as water-dwellers, the net as the gospel, and the boat as the church. The ceiling of our sanctuary, in fact, is the shape of a boat’s hull. Have you ever seen the fish symbol for Christianity? It comes from the Greek of the early Christian creed, “Jesus Christ, God’s Son, Savior,” which presents the acronym i - ch - th - u - s, the Greek word for fish.

KID STUDY:

Who do you follow? A favorite Youtube channel? An influencer? Think of all the different things and people you are constantly invited to follow on commercials, television and mail. School clubs and sports teams also want your time and work. Today, Jesus invites two sets of brothers - Simon and Andrew, and James and John - to follow him. They leave their fishing nets and their families and follow him immediately, without question! Jesus had a very important message to deliver, and back then there was no email or post office. Jesus traveled all around Galilee, delivering the good news of God. "The time has come," Jesus said. "The kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the good news!"

That message is just as important just important today as it was then. There are still many people who need to hear the good news of God's love for them. How is the message going to be delivered? Jesus has called disciples, or followers, to deliver the good news. Who are those disciples now? You and me! We are all different shapes, sizes, and colors, but we are called for the same purpose - to carry the message of God's love.

INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION:

Beloved, you have today put on Christ, and you march under our direction. You are raised up by the word of God, like a fish on a hook, from the ocean of the world. With us, normal life is transformed, for fish die as soon as they are taken from the seas of this life, yet we sinners, although dead, return to life. As long as we were in the world, we remained in the depths, and our life was submerged in the mire. Since we have been rescued from the waters, we have begun to see the sun; we have commenced to look on the true light. We cry to the Lord; and let us interpret the profound mysteries of the Scripture by other witnesses of the Scripture. - Jerome [Jerome, in The Paschal Mystery: Ancient Liturgies and Patristic Texts, ed. A. Hamman, OFM (Staten Island, NY: Alba, 1969), 141]
