MISSION STATEMENT: Love God, Love Neighbor (Luke 10:27)

VISION STATEMENT: We will work to strengthen and grow closer in relationship to God and to one another.

- As we enter into a sacred time and space, a friendly reminder to please set your cell phone to vibrate.
- We want to welcome all of our guests today and thank you for worshiping with us. If you have any questions or would like more information regarding our services, programs, day care, or preschool programs at St. Paul, please visit our Welcome Center in the narthex immediately following our service, and an attendant will be more than happy to assist you. If this is your first time at St. Paul, we hope you will take a gift along with you. We also have a gift bag for children.

* This symbol indicates that the congregation is invited to stand physically or in spirit.

INTRODUCTION

We have no good apart from God. That makes Jesus' call to follow him an invitation to freedom. This is freedom to revel in the Spirit's fruit: love, joy, peace, and patience. This is freedom to not be imprisoned by anything that would keep us from the fullness of the life God has given us. This is the path of life.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

SIGNING OF ATTENDANCE PADS

(Ushers will be handing out Attendance Pads during the announcements. Please be sure to sign your name and contact information.)

* CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P We believe that the Bible contains instruction for us as followers of Jesus Christ to do what he asked of us. He taught the first disciples to help others to confess their sins and to proclaim to them the promise of forgiveness afterwards. So let us take a few brief moments in silence to open our hearts and minds to Jesus, to confess the things that weigh heavy on our hearts and the things we need help with so we might be more in line with what Jesus commands.

(Silence for private confession.)

P If you are truly sorry and asking God for help, here is the promise he commanded the leaders in his church to proclaim, "You are forgiven." May this forgiveness free you and help you to live; to live in Jesus' name.

C Amen.

GOSPEL SONG: MAKE YOUR HOME IN ME

Ev'ry fox, a den; ev'ry bird a nest; but the Son of Man has no place to rest.
Ev'ry heart, a man; ev'ry king, a throne; but the Word made flesh no earthly home.

CHORUS:

Your burden's light and, Your yoke is easy.
Your name is love and, Your grace is free.
My heart was locked but, You had the key.
Make Your h-o-m-e in me.
Make Your h-o-m-e in me.

GOSPEL: Luke 9:51-62

Jesus is unwavering in his commitment to his mission in Jerusalem and will not be swayed by pettiness. In a series of striking cases in point, he calls his disciples to a similar single-mindedness.

A The holy gospel according to St. Luke, chapter 9, verses 51-62.

<sup>51</sup>When the days drew near for [Jesus] to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. <sup>52</sup>And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; <sup>53</sup>but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup>When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" <sup>55</sup>But he turned and rebuked them. <sup>56</sup>Then they went on to another village. <sup>57</sup>As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." <sup>58</sup>And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.”<sup>59</sup>To another he said, “Follow me.” But he said, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.”<sup>60</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.”<sup>61</sup>Another said, “I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.”<sup>62</sup>Jesus said to him, “No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

GOSPEL SONG: MAKE YOUR HOME IN ME
Lord, You come to me in Your home-less-ness;
Burning in Your eyes, such a great distress.
Who will heal Your wounds? Who will make Your bed?
I will comfort You, I will share my bread, for...

CHORUS:
*Your burden's light and, Your yoke is easy.
Your name is love and, Your grace is free.
My heart was locked but, You had the key.
Make Your h-o-m-e in me.
Make Your h-o-m-e in me.*

[END] ... Make Your h-o-m-e in me.

BRIDGE:
Where there is love, there is no fear. So make Your home and residence here.
I'm so a-live when You are near, so make Your home in me.

~CHORUS TO END~

CHILDREN'S SERMON

SERMON

* SERMON SONG: FOLLOW YOU
You live among the least of these, the weary and the weak.
And it would be a tragedy for me to turn away.
All my needs, You have supplied. When I was dead, You gave me life.
How could I not give it away so freely?

CHORUS:
*And I'll... follow You into the homes of the broken. I'll follow You into the world.
I'll meet the needs for the poor and needy, God. I'll follow you into the world.*

Use my hands, use my feet to make Your kingdom come.
To the corners of the earth until Your work is done, yeah!
'Cause faith without works is dead, and on the cross Your blood was shed.
So how could we not give it away so freely? CHORUS

BRIDGE:

I give all myself. I give all myself. I give all myself... to You.
And I give all myself. Yes, I give all myself.
And I give all myself... to You, yeah.

LAST CHORUS x2:

I'll follow You into the homes of the broken. I'll follow You into the world.I'll meet the needs for the poor and needy, God. I'll follow you into the world.

* APOSTLES' CREED

A With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

(The congregation may be seated during the prayers.)

"Power of One" is a ministry sponsored by your Stewardship Team. We are asking each and every one of our members to give $1.00 above what your normal giving would be. The team is also inviting all children to participate to develop the habit of giving as part of their worship experience. Parents, a penny, nickel, dime, quarter, or dollar bill, any of these will do to help your children develop a habit of giving. These "Power of One" dollars will be used to support local ministries and ministries abroad. The purpose of this ministry is to demonstrate that something as small as one dollar can be used to make a difference in the lives of others.

* OFFERING PRAYER

UPCOMING COMMEMORATIONS

Monday, June 27, 2022 Cyril, Bishop of Alexandria, died 444
 Cyril defended the orthodox teachings about the person of Christ. After a conflict involving all of the major Christian leaders of the time, it was decided that Cyril's interpretation, that Christ's person included both divine and human natures, was correct.

Tuesday, June 28, 2022 Irenaeus, Bishop of Lyons, died around 202
 This important early church leader tried very hard to hold to the faith handed down by the apostles. An opponent of the movement known as gnosticism, Irenaeus was one of the first to speak of the church as catholic, or linked together.

Wednesday, June 29, 2022 Peter and Paul, Apostles
 These two strong-willed apostles are the pillars of the church in the first generation after Christ. Peter was one of the Twelve, one who both offered a glorious confession of faith and later denied knowing Jesus. Paul once led the persecution of Christians, then was converted and helped bring the faith to non-Jewish people.

Friday, July 1, 2022 Catherine Winkworth, died 1878; John Mason Neale, died 1866; hymn translators
 Neale was an English priest who specialized in the translation of Latin and Greek hymns into English. Winkworth lived in Manchester, England, and devoted herself to translating German hymns. Almost all English-speaking hymnals include many of their translations.

OTHER READINGS: 1 Kings 19:15-16, 19-21

In the story preceding today's reading, the prophet Elijah flees for his life to the security of God's mountain. There God reveals to Elijah that there are still other faithful people in Israel and commissions him to anoint new leaders, including his own successor, Elisha.

The reading begins:

<sup>15</sup>Then the LORD said to [Elijah,] "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. <sup>16</sup>Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. <sup>19</sup>So he set out from there, and found Elisha son of Shaphat, who was plowing. There were twelve yoke of oxen ahead of him, and he was with the twelfth. Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle over him. <sup>20</sup>He left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." Then Elijah said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?" <sup>21</sup>He returned from following him, took the yoke of oxen, and slaughtered them; using the equipment from the oxen, he boiled their flesh, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

PSALM: Psalm 16

<sup>1</sup>Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord, my good above all other." <sup>2</sup>All my delight is in the godly that are in the land, upon those who are noble among the people. <sup>3</sup>But those who run after other gods shall have their troubles multiplied. <sup>4</sup>I will not pour out drink offerings to such gods, never take their names upon my lips. <sup>5</sup>O LORD, you are my portion and my cup; it is you who uphold my lot. <sup>6</sup>My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; indeed, I have a rich inheritance. <sup>7</sup>I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me night after night. <sup>8</sup>I have set the LORD always before me; because God is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken. <sup>9</sup>My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; my body also shall rest in hope. <sup>10</sup>For you will not abandon me to the grave, nor let your holy one see the pit. <sup>11</sup>You will show me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

OTHER READINGS: Galatians 5:1, 13-25

For Paul, the freedom Christ gives is not permission to do whatever we want. It is the invitation to be what we could not be otherwise. The power and guidance of Christ's Holy Spirit produce a different kind of life, one marked by the fruit of this Holy Spirit.

The reading begins:

<sup>1</sup>For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. <sup>13</sup>For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. <sup>14</sup>For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>15</sup>If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another. <sup>16</sup>Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. <sup>17</sup>For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. <sup>18</sup>But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. <sup>19</sup>Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, <sup>20</sup>idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, <sup>21</sup>envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>22</sup>By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup>gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. <sup>24</sup>And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. <sup>25</sup>If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

SERVICE OVERVIEW: ASKING FOR EVERYTHING

What does it mean to be a disciple? Today's texts answer this question in various ways.

In the first reading, Elisha was given the burdensome mantle of Elijah. Up until this point he'd simply been a student of the great prophet. Then, without much warning, Elijah passed the leadership responsibility onto him and transitioned dramatically from this life into the next. Because it was an immense responsibility, Elisha asked his master for a double portion of his spirit and was given it. God generously provided for Elisha so that he could faithfully continue Elijah's work.

In the second reading, Paul spells out the mission before us. Last week, he pointed out the power we've been given through our baptism. Now he explains that with the Spirit of God within, our lives should be different. He contrasts the work of the flesh with the fruit of the Spirit. We are called to use our freedom in Christ for good, so that God can transform our lives and empower us for ministry.

In the gospel, Jesus faces more resistance from those he's called. People conjure up all sorts of excuses why they can't start right away, but Jesus will have none of it. He's calling and he wants a straight answer now. You're in or you're out. He makes it clear that answering his call and living the life of discipleship requires no less than everything.

These passages are difficult. They show how much God is demanding of those who wish to follow. Those called are asked to give everything. No wonder there is resistance. Yet, they also remind us that the Spirit will support our work and, in turn, give us everything to enable us to answer the call.

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION:

Today we continue through Luke's gospel and Paul's letter to the Galatians. Jesus says once more, "Follow me." Thankfully, we have one another accompany us on the path. In baptism, we have been yoked to one another, accompanying each other as we cultivate a field full of the fruits of the Spirit. Welcome to worship! Together we hear this word and heed the invitation to the life of the Spirit.

When Jesus is in Galilee, he is in his home region. When he sets out for Jerusalem, he is heading to the region of Judea. Galilee and Judea are different. Different cultures, different clothes, different food, different people. It is easy for them, as it is easy for us, to quickly determine that someone is from the "wrong" place. Considering these differences, many people struggle to recognize God at work in the world outside of their home or even outside of designated holy spaces like church buildings. Instead of treating the fruits of the Spirit as just virtues to imitate, consider them clues to what God is already doing. Can you identify concrete examples of fruits of the Spirit in your daily life? Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Why or why not?

Jesus has called each one of us. As you read the gospel, consider your own "call story." Did it feel like you were the one who approached Jesus, or more like Jesus was the one who approached you? What questions did you ask, or how did you try to put off responding? How did God respond to that? All call stories are different, but a better understanding of your own call story can help to focus your commitment to your call.

The reading from Galatians also tells us that "for freedom Christ has set us free..." But what is freedom? People today often disagree about that, and the fact that Paul has to explain freedom to the Galatians suggests it wasn't a settled question then either. Perhaps one solution is to examine the results. If the way you exercise your freedom results in the fruits of Spirit, then it is likely to be the freedom that comes from Christ. But if the way you exercise your freedom results in the "works of the flesh," you might be acting out of selfishness, not freedom.

KID STUDY:

Our Bible lesson today is about fruit. No, we aren't talking about apples and oranges. It is about a different kind of fruit - the fruit of the Spirit. We are talking about the way we act when we put our faith in Jesus, ask him to forgive us of our sins, and promise be his followers. The Bible tells us that when we do that, the Holy Spirit fills us with God's love and produces some good fruit in our life.

If you see an apple tree, what do you expect to find on that tree? Apples! When you see someone who is filled with the Holy Spirit, you expect to see what the Bible calls the fruit of the Spirit. What is that? It is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Oh my, that is some good fruit, isn't it?

Are you always patient? Are you always gentle and kind? No, there will be times when you fail. When you fail, ask God to forgive you and fill you with his Spirit so that you will produce the kind of fruit that he wants to see in your life.

INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION:

*You, O Christ, are the one who loves me into endless life. You open up the way of risk. You go ahead of me along the way of holiness. Day by day you transfigure the "No" in me into "Yes."
You ask me, not for a few scraps, but for the whole of my existence. You kept on saying: live the little bit of the gospel you have grasped. Proclaim my life. You, follow me... Until one day I* *understood: you were asking me to commit myself to the point of no return. - Roger Schutz
