INTRODUCTION

The welcome of baptism is for all God’s children. This baptismal gift sets us free from the power of sin and death. In today’s gospel, Christ promises that the disciple who gives a cup of cold water to the little ones serves Christ himself. From worship we are sent on our baptismal mission: to serve the little ones of this world and to be a sign of God’s merciful welcome.

* CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who greets us in this and every season, whose word never fails, whose promise is sure.

C Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of our neighbors.

P Merciful God,

C we confess that we have sinned. We have hurt our community. We have squandered your blessings. We have hoarded your bounty. In the name of Jesus, forgive us and grant us your mercy. We have failed to be honest. We have lacked the courage to speak. We have spoken falsely. In the name of Jesus, forgive us and grant us your mercy.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P God is a cup of cold water when we thirst. God offers boundless grace when we fail. Claim the gift of God’s mercy: you are freed and forgiven in the name of † Jesus Christ.

C Amen.

* HYMN ELW - #888 “O Beautiful for Spacious Skies”

1. O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain, for purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain:
America! America! God shed his grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

2. O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife, who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life:
America! America! May God thy gold refine, till all success be nobleness, and ev’ry gain divine.

3. O beautiful for patriot dream that sees beyond the years thine alabaster cities gleam, undimmed by human tears:
America! America! God mend thine ev'ry flaw, confirm thy soul in self-control, thy liberty in law.

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 28:5-9

A Our first reading is from Jeremiah, chapter 28, verses 5-9. Through a symbolic action Jeremiah insisted that Judah and all the surrounding nations should submit to the king of Babylon (Jer. 27). Hananiah contradicted the word of Jeremiah, who in reply insisted that Hananiah's rosy prediction should not be believed until it came true. God confirmed the word of Jeremiah and sentenced the false prophet Hananiah to death (vv. 16-17).

The reading begins:

<sup>5</sup>The prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD; <sup>6</sup>and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD fulfill the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the LORD, and all the exiles. <sup>7</sup>But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. <sup>8</sup>The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. <sup>9</sup>As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the LORD has truly sent the prophet."

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 89:1-4, 15-18

A The Psalm today is from Psalm 89, verses 1-4 and 15-18. We will read the Psalm responsively. The congregation will please respond by reading the words in bold print.

- <sup>1</sup>Your love, O LORD, forever will I sing; from age to age my mouth will proclaim your faithfulness.
- <sup>2</sup>For I am persuaded that your steadfast love is established forever; you have set your faithfulness firmly in the heavens.
- <sup>3</sup>"I have made a covenant with my chosen one; I have sworn an oath to David my servant:
- <sup>4</sup>"I will establish your line forever, and preserve your throne for all generations."
- <sup>15</sup>Happy are the people who know the festal shout! They walk, O LORD, in the light of your presence.
- <sup>16</sup>They rejoice daily in your name; they are jubilant in your righteousness.
- <sup>17</sup>For you are the glory of their strength, and by your favor our might is exalted.
- <sup>18</sup>Truly, our shield belongs to the LORD; our king to the Holy One of Israel.

SECOND READING: Romans 6:12-23

A Our second reading is from Romans, chapter 6, verses 12-23.

Sin is an enslaving power which motivates us to live self-serving, disobedient lives. Sin's final payoff is death. We, however, have been set free from sin's slavery to live obediently under God's grace, whose end is the free gift of eternal life.

The reading begins:

<sup>12</sup>Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. <sup>13</sup>No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. <sup>14</sup>For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. <sup>15</sup>What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! <sup>16</sup>Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? <sup>17</sup>But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, <sup>18</sup>and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. <sup>19</sup>I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification. <sup>20</sup>When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. <sup>21</sup>So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. <sup>22</sup>But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. <sup>23</sup>For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

A The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

A Please stand as you are comfortable for the gospel.

* GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: (Sung)

* GOSPEL: Matthew 10:40-42

When Jesus sends his disciples out as missionaries, he warns them of persecution and hardships they will face. He also promises to reward any who aid his followers and support their ministry.

P The holy gospel according to St. Matthew, chapter 10, verses 40-42.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said to the twelve:] <sup>40</sup>Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. <sup>41</sup>Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; <sup>42</sup>and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple — truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward."

P The gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to you, O Christ.

CHILDREN'S SERMON

SERMON

St. Paul Youth

* HYMN ELW - #676 "Lord, Speak to Us, That We May Speak"

1. Lord, speak to us, that we may speak in living echoes of your tone; as you have sought, so let us seek your straying children, lost and lone.
2. Oh, lead us, Lord, that we may lead the wand'ring and the wav'ring feet; oh, feed us, Lord, that we may feed your hung'ring ones with manna sweet.
3. Oh, teach us, Lord, that we may teach the precious truths which you impart; and wing our words, that they may reach the hidden depths of many a heart.
4. Oh, fill us with your fullness, Lord, until our very hearts o'erflow in kindling thought and glowing word, your love to tell, your praise to show.

Text: Frances R. Havergal, 1836-1879, alt. Music: Robert Schumann, 1810-1856

* APOSTLES' CREED

A With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

(The congregation may be seated during the prayers.)

* PEACE

P The peace of the risen Lord be with you always.

C And also with you. (Share the "Peace of the Lord" with your neighbors.)

(We will be collecting offerings before and after worship each week. This includes Power of One dollars.)

OFFERING and POWER OF ONE

"Power of One" is a ministry sponsored by your Stewardship Team. We are asking each and every one of our members to give $1.00 above what your normal giving would be. We are asking each member to place this $1.00 bill or change in the offering plate each week. The team is also inviting all children to participate to develop the habit of giving as part of their worship experience. Parents, a penny, nickel, dime, quarter, or dollar bill, any of these will do to help your children develop a habit of giving. These "Power of One" dollars will be used to support local ministries and ministries abroad. The purpose of this ministry is to demonstrate that something as small as one dollar can be used to make a difference in the lives of others.

* OFFERTORY (Sung)

Let the vine-yards be fruit-ful, Lord, and fill to the brim our cup of bles-sing. Gath-er a har-vest from the seeds that were sown, that we may be fed with the bread of life. Gath-er the hopes and dreams of all; u - thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

UPCOMING COMMEMORATIONS

Monday, July 3, 2023 Thomas, Apostle

Though frequently remembered as "doubting Thomas," this apostle also demonstrated a willingness to suffer and die with Jesus (John 11:16), and finally claimed the risen Christ as "my Lord and my God!" By tradition, he later worked as a missionary in India. Long commemorated on December 21, Thomas's celebration is moved to July 3 in agreement with ecumenical calendars.

Thursday, July 6, 2023 Jan Hus, martyr, died 1415

Hus was a Bohemian (present-day Czech Republic) priest who spoke against abuses in the church, and was seen by Martin Luther as his predecessor in the reforming movement. He was found guilty of heresy by a council of the church, and burned at the stake.

SERVICE OVERVIEW: THE REWARDS OF RECEIVING

God does not always give us lives of joy and ease. Jesus' own faith journey included challenges: moments of sadness, grief, and betrayal. For us, a full life in Christ also includes these things. When we can acknowledge God's presence in every circumstance, our faith becomes integrated and sustainable through a lifetime. When our lives are identified with Christ, as disciples we can name the challenges in our own faith journeys as dimensions of Christ's story and purpose.

THEOLOGICAL REFLECTION:

A true prophet is not a fortune teller but rather the mouthpiece of God - proclaiming not what will be, but what is. Today's gospel is often called "The Sermon To The Sent Ones" offering words of encouragement to the disciples as they (and we) prepare to proclaim the gospel in new communities. Welcome to worship! Be inspired about the good news of life in Christ, then be a mouthpiece for God!

Can you identify with the readings today? In Jeremiah we encounter a community that knows its failures well and has at times felt far removed from God. In Paul's letter to the Romans, sin and the need to be good enough come to the fore. The gospel lifts up the disciples' fear of not being welcomed. In each scenario, insecurities come into play. These texts offer opportunities to delve into our personal and congregational insecurities. How do peace, grace, hospitality, and God's transforming presence move us forward in living fully as people of God?

The gospel proclaims welcome described as the gift of a cold cup of water to little ones. How can we as a congregation view ourselves as a place of respite for people striving to hear God's word in the world? In the midst of all that people experience, in what ways do you show "thirsty" that there is a place for them?

Today, our youth are leading worship! What an incredible gift to us, to the church, and to the world! Christian education at St. Paul is a weekly experience that touches many children and families in this community that are not even members of our church. The Wednesday BLAST program creates a real sense of community, encouraging our youth to develop a willingness to step out in faith. They learn to embody God's compassion for others, giving a voice and service to their faith. These children and their families set a great example for the rest of us as we are sent from worship to live the gospel.

KID STUDY:

Wow! Is it ever hot outside! What really refreshes us on a hot, sunny, summer day? Cold water! A dip in the pool, a spraying water hose or sprinkler, or a nice tall glass of ice water can make us feel great. Today Jesus reminds us that people need to be cared for. We need the same refreshment in our hearts that a cup of cold water provides to our bodies. Remember also that Jesus is the "living water" that refreshes our souls. He tells the disciples that when they welcome and care for everyone, they are speaking for God. What can you do to share with other people the good news that Jesus loves them to refresh their hearts? When we welcome and care for each other, we welcome Jesus.

INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION:

I told them I was like Jonah; for it had been then nearly eight years since the Lord had called me to preach his gospel to the fallen sons and daughters of Adam's race, but that I had lingered like him, and delayed to go at the bidding of the Lord, and warn those who are as deeply guilty as were the people of Nineveh. My sermon applied wholly to myself, and added an exhortation. God made manifest his power among the people. Some wept, while others shouted for joy. Here by the instrumentality of a poor colored woman, the Lord poured forth his spirit among the people. Though there were lawyers, doctors, and magistrates present, to hear me speak, yet there was mourning and crying among sinners, for the Lord scattered fire among them of his own kindling. The Lord gave his handmaiden power to speak for his great name, for he arrested the hearts of the people, and caused a shaking amongst the multitude, for God was in the midst.
